REYNOLDS.—James Frank Reynolds, aged 44, died in the Waynesburg section last week. His friend, M. G. Reynolds, left at this office yesterday a splendid tribute to him, which will appear next issue.

JOHN P. JONES, of Stanford, was in the city this week looking for a dry goods store. Mr. Jones expressed himself as being well pleased with the city, and would probably come if he could find a suitable room.—Somerset Journal.

THE teachers of the Graded School enjoyed their visit to the Lancaster Graded School Friday afternoon and feel well benefited as well by their trip. Each of our teachers spent an hour in the various school rooms and they speak in complimentary terms of the manner in which the Lancaster school is conducted. Prof. Ireland made an excellent talk of 20 or 30 minutes and Prof. W. C. Grinstead, of Danville, also addressed the school for a brief period. A number of the high school students accompanied the teachers, as did Trustee and Mrs. H. J. McRoberts.

DAVISON.—Mrs. Martha Fletcher Davison, relict of Mr. Ed Davison, died at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, after several weeks' illness of a complication of troubles, which begun with grip. She was 70 years old and was a Miss Vaughan, sister of Mr. Geo. Vaughan, deceased. A devout member of the Methodist church, a consecrated, good woman, an indulgent mother and most excellent neighbor it was well that she was spared to a ripe old age. The funeral services occurred at the late home at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, after which a large crowd followed the remains to Buffalo cemetery where all that was mortal of the good old mother was laid to rest to await the resurrection morn. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. P. J. Ross and were peculiarly appropriate. Mrs. Davison is survived by the following children: Judge George M. Davison, Mrs. J. C. Florence, Thomas Davison, Miss Lizzie Davison and Dr. R. L. Davison. Logan and John Davison preceded their mother to the grave a number of years. Shortly before Mrs. Davison lapsed into unconsciousness, she called each of her children to her and spoke to them words that will ring in their ears for time to come. They were words of encouragement and counsel, just such as might have been expected from the godly woman the deceased was. She has gone to a rich reward; may those who are left behind emulate the excellent example she set during her long sojourn on earth.

CARRIAGE heaters, robes, horse blankets, etc. J. C. McClary.
